

FRESCOBALDI WINE ESTATES

AUTHENTIC TUSCANY: WINE, TRADITION AND TIMELESS BEAUTY

My family and I share a dream: to express our dedication, emotions, and passion through our wines.

A lifetime spent understanding and honoring these terroirs, weaving them into the spirit of Tuscany where beauty and goodness are a form of art.

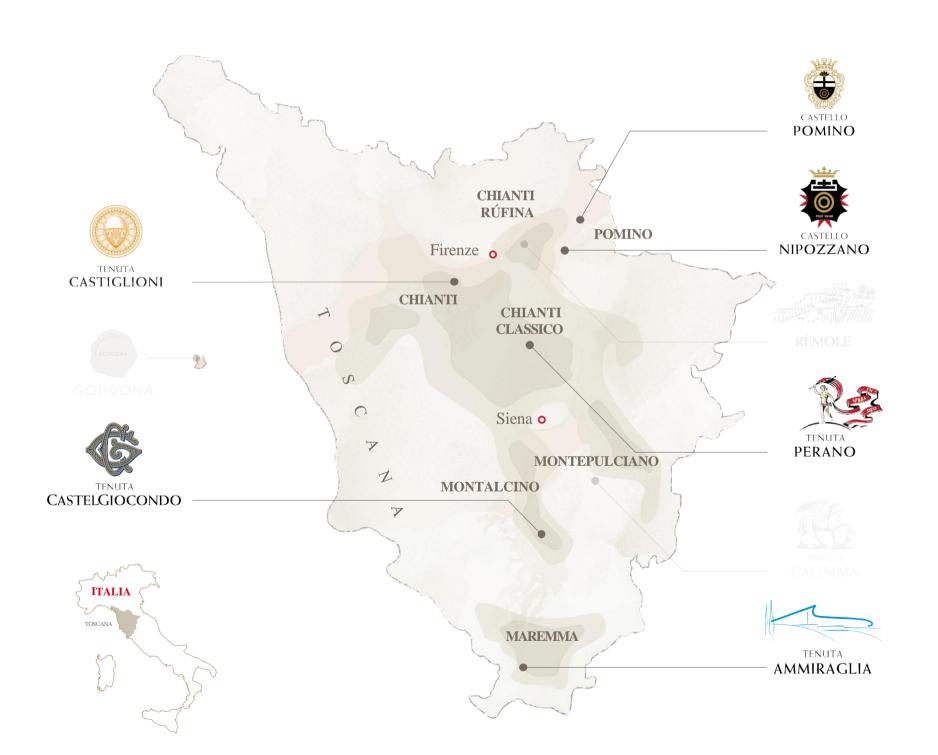

A thousand years of family history is for me an incomparable treasure, a legacy of knowledge and tradition.

It is my duty to share this passion and pass it on to future generations, carrying on our deep love for these places and these eternal hills.

CULTIVATING TOSCANA DIVERSITY

Frescobaldi has embodied the spirit of Tuscany for more than seven centuries, celebrating the extraordinary vocation of winemaking and the rich diversity of its lands.

Each Frescobaldi estate is an ode to Tuscany, inviting guests to experience the soul of this land where history and nature meet in perfect harmony.

Nestled in the most blessed corners of Tuscany, each landholding tells its own story: a tale shaped by nature, terroir and the people who bring it to life, everyday.

TIMELESS TUSCANY

Amidst the rolling hills and vineyards of Chianti Rufina - just 20 minutes from Florence - lies the enchanting medieval village of Nipozzano. Rooted in over a thousand years of history, the village was born around the ancient Castello Nipozzano, which is now surrounded by olive groves and vineyards.
Here, the nearby Apennine Mountains, with their significant temperature variations from day to night and their rocky soils, nurture wines that are known for their elegance, fruity character and excellent balance.

CASTELLO NIPOZZANO Località Nipozzano, Florence - Tuscany

AN ENCHANTING VIEW OVER TUSCAN WINEYARDS

Castello Nipozzano stands in a privileged position overlooking the enchanting Tuscan hills.

The castle, the historic villa and its evocative cellars are the cradle of a centuries-old heritage, nestling bottles from the family's private collection dating back to 1864.

Here, guests are welcomed with a warmth and refined style, as if tradition and history had paused time itself.

Named after the varieties of olives grown on the property, the estate's exclusive rooms are located in the former olive press. Each room overlooks a breathtaking panorama of the castle's vineyards, in a perfect blend of charm and authenticity.

LOCAL FLAVORS, AUTHENTIC TRADITIONS

The authentic flavors of Tuscany come to life through the winery's genuine and locally sourced ingredients. From the estate's own harvests to the carefully selected local products, each truly product celebrates this land, honoring deep-rooted traditions and a strong commitment to sustainability.

This philosophy echoes across every Frescobaldi estate, where excellence and tradition unite to create an unforgettable sensory experience blending taste, history, and passion.

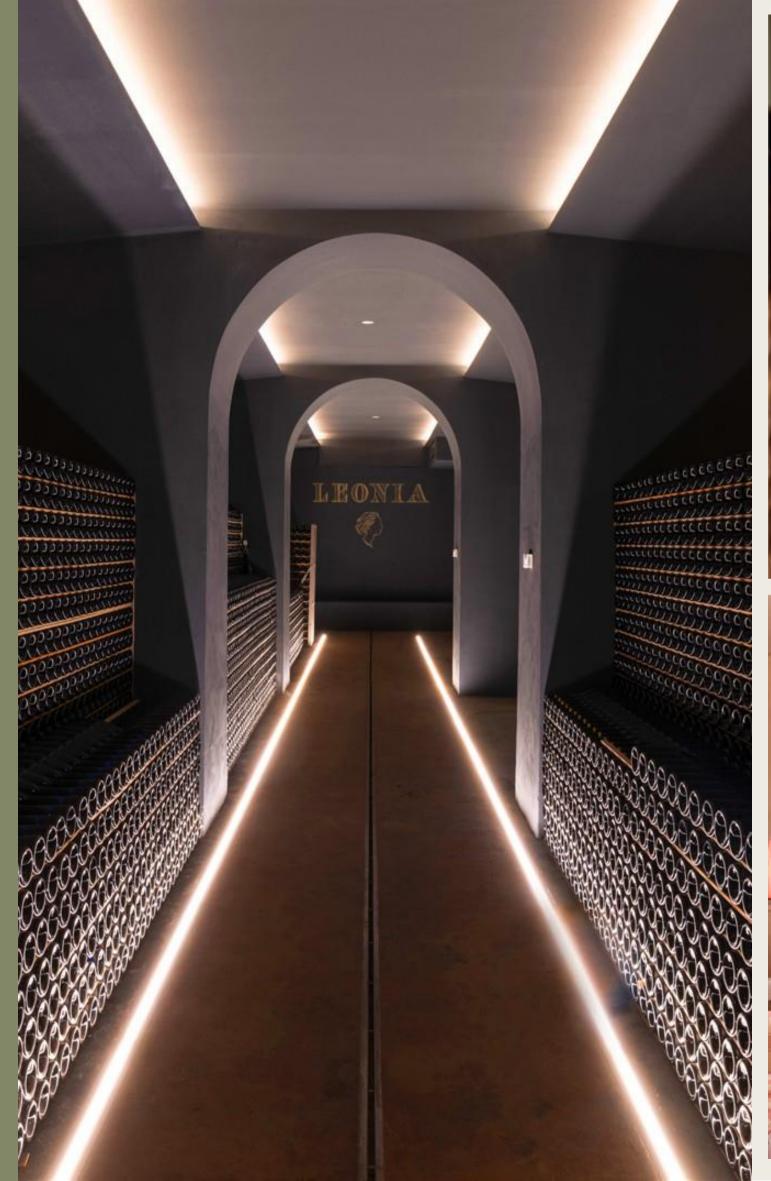

THE HIDDEN GEM

The Castle of Pomino, with its refined Renaissance architecture, exudes an elegance steeped in history and natural harmony. Celebrated by Cosimo III de' Medici as one of Tuscany's most esteemed wine regions, this land has a legacy that resonates through its vineyards.

Perched at an altitude of 750 meters, the vines thrive among majestic redwoods, firs and chestnut trees. Here, the radiant Tuscan sun and dramatic shifts in temperature between day and night conspire to create wines of exceptional aromatic complexity, bursting with vibrant freshness, refined acidity, and exquisitely delicate aromas.

TENUTA POMINO Località Pomino - Rufina, Florence

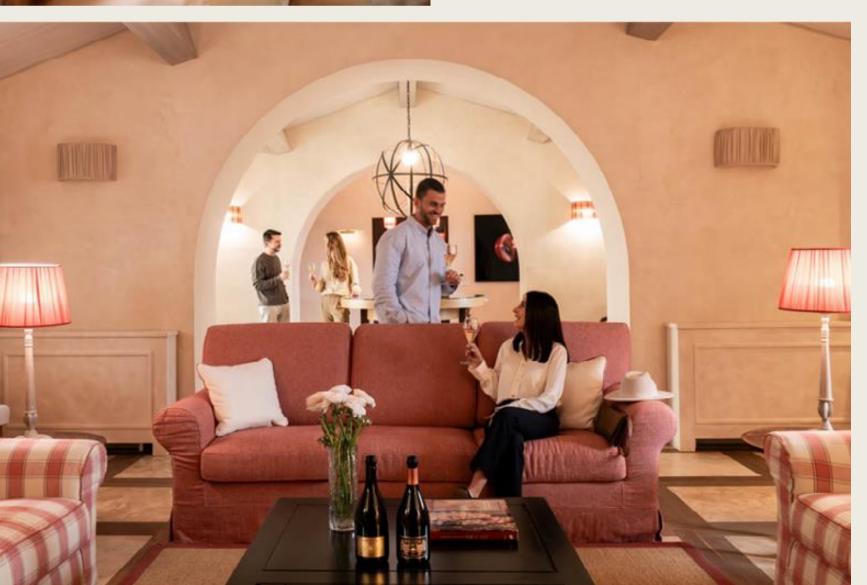

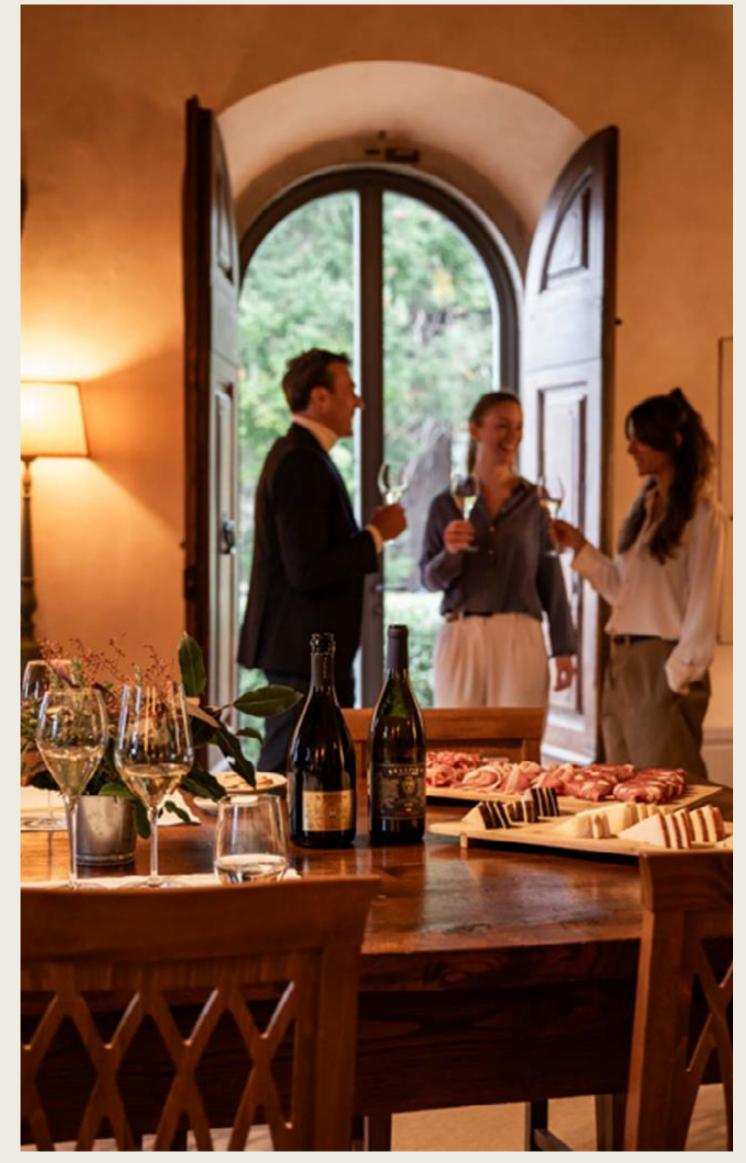

Entering the Leonia winery is stepping into a story of daring vision and timeless elegance.

It was here, in the heart of Pomino, that we first planted French Chardonnay and Pinot Noir, creating them in one of Italy's earliest gravity-flow wineries.

For this innovative vision, we awarded the golden medal at the Paris Exposition of 1878.

Every visit and every tasting at Tenuta Pomino is an expression of harmony. The character of our wines, the unique terroir and the warmth of our hospitality unite to create a refined and unforgettable experience..

This is why a stay at Villa Pomino offers an atmosphere of intimate tranquility, where the unspoiled beauty of nature gently envelops you. The surrounding woods and valley seem to guard the estate, preserving its timeless soul and inviting guests to experience a retreat of stillness and authenticity.

THE SPIRIT OF MONTALCINO

The village of Castel Giocondo dominates the fertile valley of Montalcino. Acquired by the Frescobaldi family in 1989, the estate is one of the few that pioneered the production of Brunello di Montalcino at the beginning of the 19th century.

This vineyards benefit from three essential conditions that enhance the expression of its Sangiovese: an ideal altitude of about 300 meters, a southwest facing slopes that capture the warm afternoon sun and well-drained marl soils.

HISTORIC AND WELCOMING

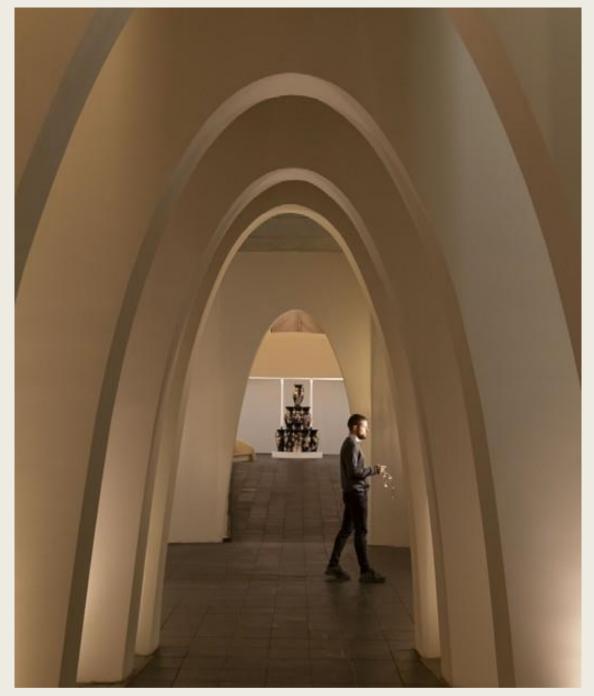

Ancient, magnificent, and commanding, Castel Giocondo stands as a fortress steeped in history.

Its medieval majesty harmonizes seamlessly with the surrounding natural beauty, creating a perfect balance between timeless legacy and contemporary elegance.

THE BRUNELLO WINE AND THAT BOND WITH ART

The estate's signature wine, Castel Giocondo Brunello di Montalcino DOCG, is made from a meticulous selection of 100% Sangiovese, cultivated to honor the noble character of this ancient grape.

Elegant and harmonious, this wine is characterized by intense aromas and refined complexity: a quintessential expression of Montalcino, shaped by the clay, sand and marl soils of the area.

The Montalcino estate also hosts the "Artisti per Frescobaldi" exhibition: a celebration of contemporary art inspired by the family's deep artistic heritage.

In fact, since the Renaissance, the Frescobaldi family has commissioned masterpieces from artists such as Brunelleschi and Donatello, a tradition that continues today through the works of emerging talents.

A GENUINE, IMMERSIVE EXPERIENCE

The estate's exclusive rooms are a cocoon of comfort and tranquility. Elegantly furnished with a strong respect for tradition, they welcome guests into an embrace of serenity and warmth.

The experience is crowned by the estate's intimate spa: a refuge with sauna, outdoor showers, Jacuzzi, and a breathtaking views that inspire balance and deep relaxation.

To enrich the stay, a curated selection of Tuscan delicacies produced on the estate adds a touch of authenticity and warmth.

Every moment spent here reflects the harmony with the land and the passion that nurtures it.

A NATURAL AMPHITHEATER IN CHIANTI CLASSICO

Nestled in Gaiole, one of the most prestigious subzones of Chianti Classico, Tenuta Perano enjoys an extraordinary position within a natural amphitheater: the ideal setting to capture the sun's warmth and light, essential elements for crafting its distinctive wines.

This magical place yields wines of elegance, vivacity and intense fruit aromas, a true reflection of the land's unique character.

THE ESTATE AND ITS SPACES

With its natural elegance, signature of this estate, Tenuta Perano invites guests to step into its refined and effortless mood: a promise of the experiences to come.

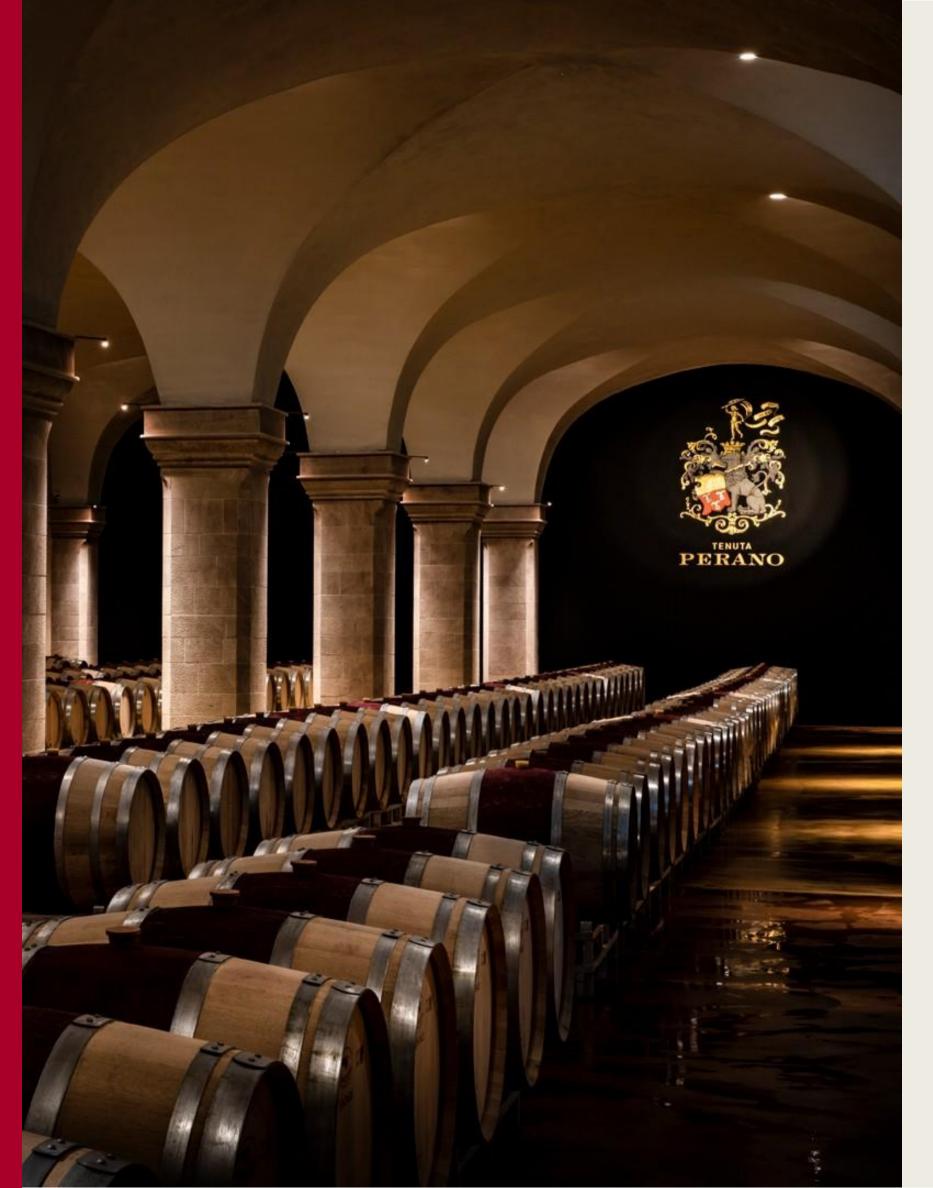

Every detail, from the warmth of the welcome to the harmonious design of the spaces, expresses a deep commitment to honor and preserve the land with passion and respect.

Entering the cellars of Tenuta Perano guests are greeted by an atmosphere steeped in charm and authenticity.

It is here that the hand-selected grapes, nurtured with care, are transformed into a wine of perfectly balanced structure and elegance.

THE SPIRIT OF A RARE LAND

At Osteria Perano, guests will embark on an unforgettable culinary journey through the flavors of Chianti Classico.

With meticulous care, the estate's chef selects the finest seasonal ingredients, crafting traditional Tuscan dishes that perfectly complement the character of the wines. Each pairing becomes a harmonious celebration of taste, terroir, and culinary artistry.

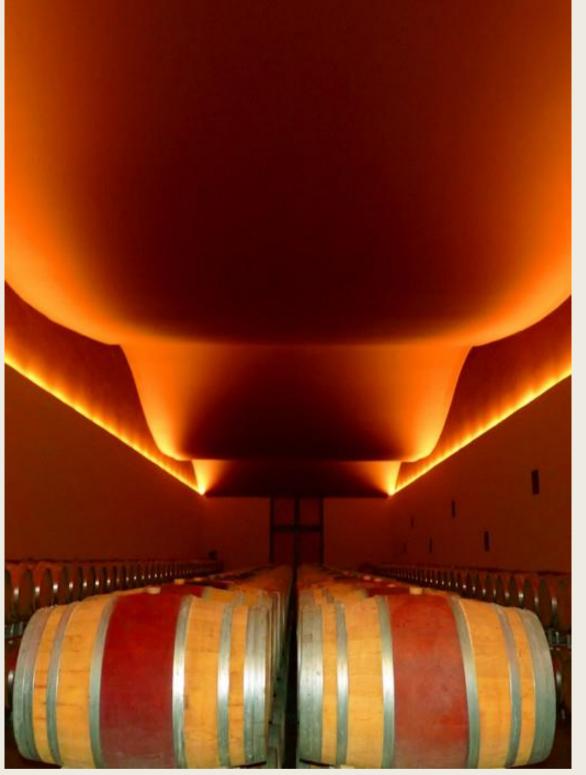

MAREMMA: WHERE TUSCANY MEETS THE SEA

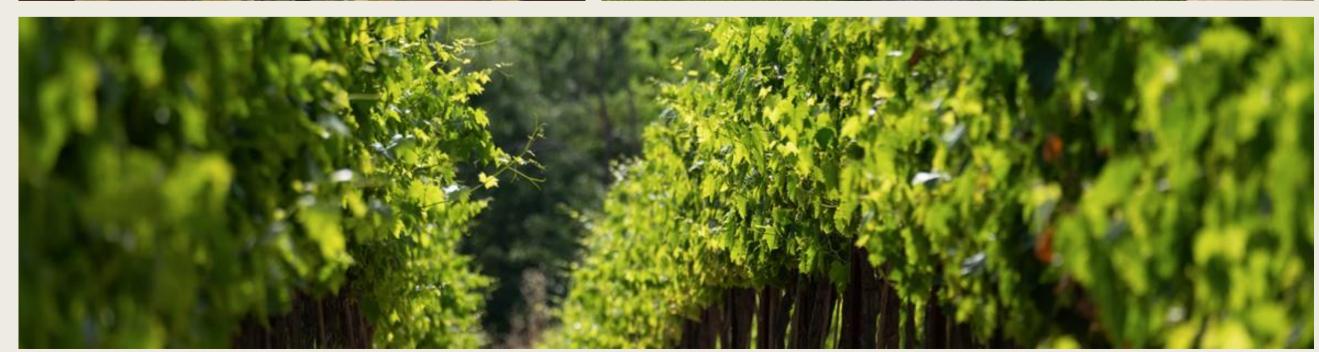

In the heart of the Maremma, Tenuta Ammiraglia embodies a modern, Mediterranean expression of Tuscany.

The estate's vineyards, bathed in the sun and caressed by the sea breeze, trace graceful patterns across the hills that gently slope towards the Tyrrhenian coast.

The proximity of the sea, with its constant breezes that temper the summer heat, gives the wines a fascinating minerality, unmistakable signature of this coastal terroir.

A HARMONIOUS DIALOGUE BETWEEN NATURE AND DESIGN

Tenuta Ammiraglia, conceived by architects Piero Sartogo and Nathalie Grenon, is a striking expression of an architecture that blends seamlessly into the surrounding landscape

The design creates an unexpected dialogue between the wild beauty of the Mediterranean maquis and the vast horizon of the sea, a conversation that resonates in the fresh, mineral notes of Ammiraglia's wines.

FROM DESIGN TO THE FLAVORS OF EXPERIENCE

The discovery of Tenuta Ammiraglia's vineyards is a sensory experience amplified by tasting its wines: fresh and mineral, with a lively, elegant character born of the sea.

These wines are best enjoyed when expertly paired local products, further enhancing the connection to this unique terroir.

The evocative natural setting, an unspoiled landscape punctuated by views of the Argentario promontory, the Island of Giglio, and the vibrant colors of the Tuscan Maremma, completes this unforgettable experience.

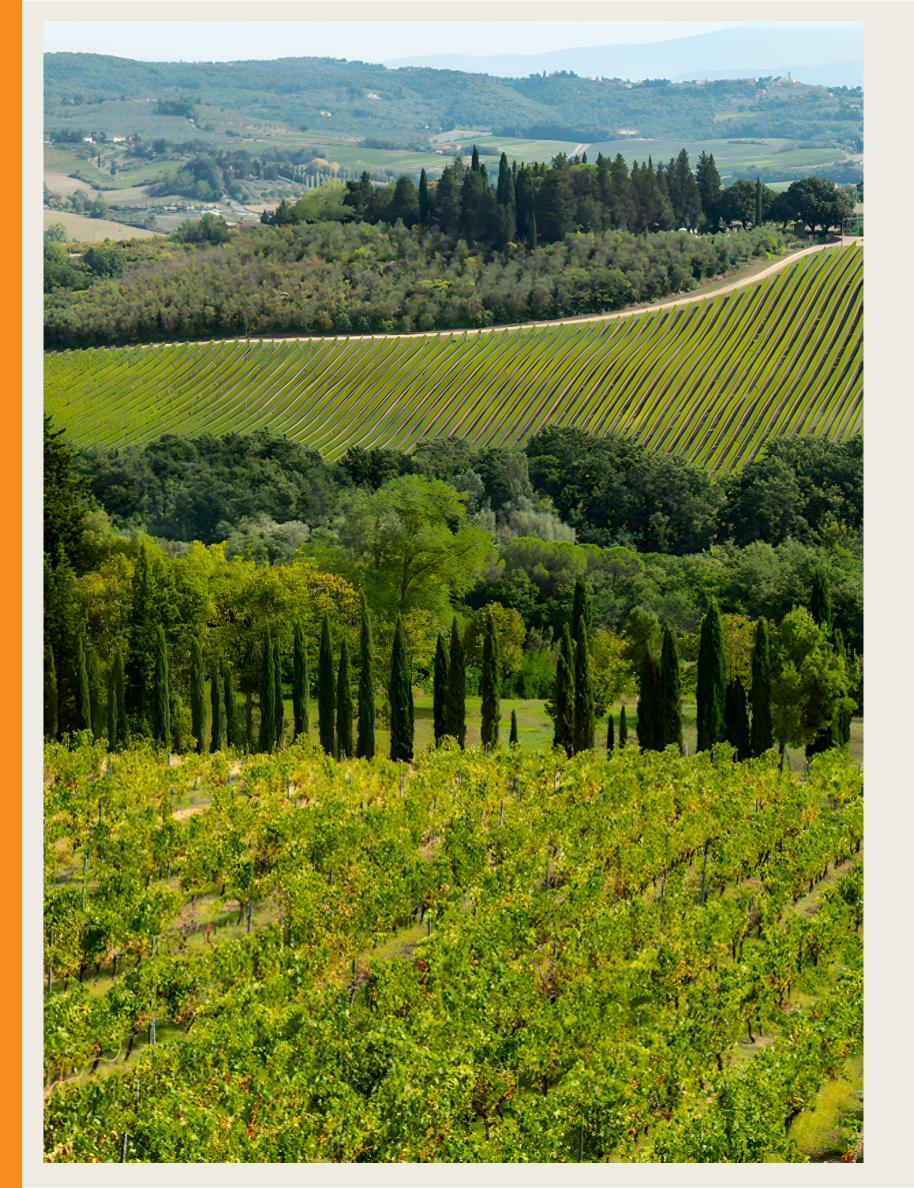

WHERE OUR HISTORY BEGAN

A property owned by the Frescobaldi family since the 11th century, Castiglioni is where the family began its wine production.

In the heart of the Chianti region, the estate extends across the hills of the Val di Pesa, along the ancient Via di Castiglioni, built by the Romans to connect northern Tuscany with Rome, the eternal city.

Here, the wealth of time and the land is expressed in the body of its wines, thanks to the symbiosis of cool soils, a mild climate and afternoon breezes from the Tyrrhenian Sea.

A HISTORICAL CONTEXT WITH FAMILY WARMTH

The noble coat of arms of the Frescobaldi family, with its crown, shield and three fortresses, also represents Castiglioni, recalling the 700-year winemaking history that began right here on this estate.

The warm family hospitality of Tenuta Castiglioni magically blends with its historical charm, providing an unforgettable visual memory.

Tenuta Castiglioni accompanies guests in an immersive setting, extending from the vineyards directly to the wine cellar, the historical rooms of the family's manor, and the offerings of the chef, available for private events.
